

AGREEMENT TO PURCHASE CUSTOMER-OWNED GAS DIVERTED DURING A GAS EMERGENCY

Consumers Energy Company (“Consumers”) and _____ (“Customer”) agree that Consumers will purchase _____ MMBtu of gas delivered by Customer on January 30 and 31, 2019, that was not utilized by Customer due to natural gas curtailments on those days.

By signing below, Customer attests they took the following action to reduce consumption during the period of curtailment: _____.

The total purchase price of the diverted gas is $ _____, which will be rendered to Customer in the form of a bill credit to account number _____. This will result in a reduction of _____ MMBTU In the gas delivery month of _____.

Customer acknowledges this purchase will affect their gas balance and could result in unauthorized use charges if the ending balance results in insufficient gas to meet their needs for the month.

In accordance with Section C3.3G of the Company’s Gas Rate Book, the purchase price above does not exceed the highest of:

- a) The Customer’s reasonable costs associated with using alternate fuels during the period of diversion; or
- b) The actual cost of the customer’s diverted gas; or
- c) The highest city gate price of gas for the Company’s end users contained in the publication “Gas Daily”, delivered into the Company’s system during the period of diversion.
