November Identity Theft Meeting - with Audra Cumberworth, CE Technology Director

The Jacksonians had thirty-one people attend this meeting. Some takeaways from the event were:

What to do if your Identity is Stolen

* Contact www.identitytheft.gov

*Contact the organization that is involved in the fraud, i.e., IRS, Credit Card *File a police report *Keep records of interactions and track and costs incurred *Notify your insurance company (you may have coverage) *Freeze your credit score with Experian or Equifax)

Our attendees showed their Christmas spirit by donating $130 to "Operation Christmas Child." This monetary donation will be used for the mailing of the Shoeboxes. The Jacksonians board and OCC project leader Fallon Walker would like to thank the Jacksonians for their generous contributions.

December 2, 2021 Christmas Luncheon at Country Club of Jackson - Seventy-Seven people attended

Thank You to Linda Hass for an informational and entertaining Hidden History of Jackson County.

We would also like to thank Ethan and the staff for the beautiful setting and delicious lunch at the Country Club of Jackson.
