News for and about Jackson-Area Retirees

Lost Railway Museum - Free Event on May 17 at 1:00pm

Our tour will begin at 1:00pm.

Make your reservations by email or phone to Roberta at robertasexton@comcast.net or 517-748-3097.

Deadline is May 9, 2022.

Check out more information at www.lostrailwaymuseum.org

Family Summer Picnic at the Dahlem Center on June 21 at 1:00pm—7117 S. Jackson Rd.

Dahlem, Jackson's Nature Place, provides environmental education and outdoor experiences to the people Michigan. Their beautiful trails are open to the public every day from dawn until dusk. Come experience the diversity of plants, animals, and ecosystems located in Dahlem's nearly 300 acres of conserved land. Ben Dandrow, the director will have a short introduction to the center.

Registration begins at 11:30 with lunch at 12:00 noon. After lunch we will be able to walk the trails and visit the Exhibit Area along with Nutshell Gift Shop. The Jacksonians will provide: Paper products, hot dogs, buns, chips, water and dessert. RSVP by emailing Roberta at robertasexton@comcast.net or 517-748-3097 with number of grandchildren and adults attending.

Deadline Friday, June 17th. Bring your lawn chairs!

Jacksonians Trail Bicyclist Nine People have shown interest

Well, we have heard from nine people interested in the "Jacksonians Trial Bicyclist". I have connected them as a group and they are emailing each other with ideas. If you are interested and haven't made the connection yet, email Joann at jedavis22@gmail.com. Update: Inaugural retiree bike ride has happened!

CE Volunteer Match & Gifts Program News!

We will be launching our Volunteer Grand & Matching Gifts Programs through the CE Volunteer Portal. This online, self-serve platform will allow you to track and manage your volunteer hours and charitable donations to qualify for this program, as well as coordinate volunteer events with current employees and fellow retirees, all in one place. Email us with your email address to create your account on the CE Volunteer Portal. You can do this by sending an email to Volunteers@CMSEnergy.com.

* Increased match to 1:1 (100%) for Retiree donations!
