The Southeasterns Christmas luncheon was held on 12/15/17 at the Monroe Grill and Bar. We had about 25 attendees who took time for a little Christmas cheer. A holiday gift basket was raffled off and Alice Hinojosa won. Proceeds from this and our 50/50 raffle each month, along with a generous donation from Bill Connors added up to a $230 donation for the families at Sunrise House in Monroe, a charity we have supported for several years. Thanks to you all!

The next meeting will be at the Bedford Diner on Monday, January 8, 2018 since the first Monday is New Year's Day. We will discuss the possibility of changing our venue for 2018.

Remember to send in your membership dues with the application for 2018 (unless you are a lifetime member). For only $10 you will receive publications and information from the company. Your dues also fund the scholarships offered to family members. This is only available to dues-paying members. We are looking into having cards made for members.

Respectfully submitted,

Linda Homolka
