The breakfast meeting was held on November 5, 2018. Members present were: C.J. Schwartz, Ralph Luft, Tony and Linda Homolka, Harry Redford, Jerry Ridner, Tom Cooper, Ken Pearsall, Ernie Kotnik, Steve Marsahl, Ed Weaver, Mark Fowler, Tom St. Bernard, Lyle Stark, John Pauli, Frank Lambert, Darlene Collins, Floyd Martin, Neil Wagner, Jeanette Morris, Bill Conner, Tim Kolb, and Mike Costello.

The 50/50 raffle was won today by Steve Marshall.

The treasurer's report shows $124.00. Our chapter donated a prize to the annual golf tournament for a total of $29.00.

Demolition of the J.R. Whiting plant: There appears to be progress on the plant demolition. Linda has been in touch with Tom McKittrick, President and CEO of Forsite Development. He assured us that they have not forgotten about our request to see the take-down of the smoke stacks. He believes that it will be sometime in the spring of 2019.

Discussion on health insurance changes: Most members have begun the process of making these decisions. If you create your account online before you begin, the process is a bit faster. You will create a personal profile either by going online to www.My.ViaBenefits.com/cmsenergy or call 1-888-604-2921. This customer service representative will not be able to answer your questions about plans. After that, you will schedule a call to enroll. This will be a licensed benefit advisor who will walk you through the coverage options Tony Homolka reported that VIA benefits were very helpful in making our decisions for 2019. If you have not done this yet, be prepared for a long telephone appointment. We were on the phone for 3 solid hours. It is the actual application process that takes so long.

At our December meeting, Linda will bring membership applications for everyone to fill out. If you want to receive current information from the company and the "Retiree Line", you should keep your membership. Also, remember for only $10.00/year, your membership helps to fund the scholarships that are offered to the family members of the Forerunners. As you see above, there were many grateful recipients. You will always be welcome at our breakfasts, however.

Save the date****

We will have our Christmas party on Thursday, December 13th at 12:00 noon.
